

« Mobility for IMAGING 2024 »

Marseille Imaging Institute funds incoming mobility projects for international students and researchers to promote excellence, collaborations and facilitate exchanges with foreign university on Imaging project in the fields of data sciences, instrumentation and application in the following scientific areas:

- Ultimate Imaging
- Imaging Therapy
- Innovative and disruptive technics
- Imaging for the greatest number

The institute is a component of Aix-Marseille University supported by AMIDEX funding (AMX-19-IET-002). The use of funding is therefore governed by AMIDEX financial rules and subject to evaluation.

The global budget allocated to this call in 2024 is 20 000 €.

Applications are made on a rolling basis until the allocated budget is fully used.

How to apply ?

The candidate and the project investigator must apply at least 2 months before the expected mobility.

The application is made by email (cecile.lavoute@univ-amu.fr) by sending the following documents :

- The duly completed application form “IMAGING - Mobility for IMAGING – form”
- The Curriculum vitae of the candidate for mobility
- A copy of the ID card
- A copy of an official bank detail
- A invitation letter from the host laboratory to support/justify the application

Decision

After evaluation the Institute will inform of the result within 15 days of the request.

Eligibility criteria

- Thematic

Projects should focus on biological or medical imaging and should be in line with the scientific axes of the Marseille Imaging Institute
 Mobility implies a willingness to collaborate on an innovative and high-impact biological or medical imaging project.

- Collaborations

The applicant must be an international student (bachelor, Master or PhD level) or an international researcher from a foreign university and should not be of French nationality and not registered at Aix-Marseille University. The host laboratory should be a member of the Marseille Imaging Institute (see on page 3).

- Grants & Duration of mobility

The scholarship awarded will depend on the need, the length of the stay and the level of the guest.
