

PRESENTATION

The SUL Language Resource Centre, located on the Saint-Charles campus in Marseille, is the university's self-learning service for modern languages. It offers a wide range of resources to help students improve their language skills, whether in initial or continuing education.

CARLAM supports more than 700 learners throughout the year in 19 languages through a wide variety of methods: tutored self-study in the classroom and online using educational platforms and resources, conversation workshops, tutorials and linguistic and intercultural tandems in partnership with international universities. It also organises events in collaboration with various AMU departments (International Month, Civis workshops, Francophonie Week, etc.).

CARLAM is open to :

- AMU students (free registration)
- AMU staff and users from outside the AMU (paying membership)

A stimulating university environment

With almost 80.000 students, Aix-Marseille University offers a dynamic and attractive cultural environment on the Mediterranean coast in the Provence-Alpes-Côte-d'Azur region.

Aix-Marseille is a cosmopolitan, well-connected metropolis with a pleasant climate, surrounded by breathtaking landscapes such as the Calanques natural park and the hinterland of Provence.

HOW DOES SELF-STUDY WORK?

Assisted by a teacher-tutor, the learning process is carried out on the material chosen by the student, at a pace that suits him or her. On the basis of advisory interviews, the tutor helps to set objectives and find the right resources to meet needs.

CARLAM also offers :

- Conversation workshops and individual tutorials led by native speakers
- Preparation for the main language certifications: CLES, DCL, DELF/DALF, TOEIC, TOEFL, IELTS, Cambridge, DELE
- Self-study resources in 19 languages (German, English, Arabic, Chinese, Spanish, FLE, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, etc.)

WHAT RESOURCES?

Multimedia > Language learning software for all levels, grammar, vocabulary, comprehension and expression, specialised language...), digital resources and teaching platforms.

Audio and Video > Learning methods, audio books, films in original language, etc.

Documentation > Consultation and loan of language resources: newspapers, magazines, journals in several languages, novels, short stories, reference works (dictionaries, grammars, methods).

LANGUAGE CERTIFICATIONS

CARLAM is an examination centre for the CLES (Certificat de Compétences en Langues de l'Enseignement Supérieur). It is the national coordination centre for the DCL (Diplôme de Compétences en Langues). It also offers other English language qualifications.

If you have any questions about the organisation of certification sessions, please contact CARLAM at the following address :
